Know the Rules -- Avoid Overpayments and Don't Commit Fraud

You must report any activity that brings in or may bring in income at any time -- even if you have not yet been paid.

The LWC uses various sources to detect unemployment fraud. Failure to report eligible income could result in the overpayment of benefits -- any unemployment payment you receive that you are not entitled to -- which you will be required to repay. Worse, a determination that you knowingly and purposely committed fraud could lead to a criminal investigation and criminal charges.

You are required to repay any overpayment balances by submitting funds directly to LWC, by deducting the amount from your future unemployment payments, or if necessary, the funds will be withheld from your state and/or federal income tax refunds.

If your overpayment is a result of fraud:

- You will be disqualified for 52 weeks from the date of the decision from receiving unemployment benefits.
- You will be referred for legal action, such as criminal investigation or prosecution.
- Your recreational hunting and fishing licenses may be suspended until your debt is paid in full or you are current for 90 days on a repayment schedule.
- Liens may be assessed until your debt is paid in full.
- Your federal or state income tax refunds will be garnished.

I have read and understand the information regarding potential fraud penalties.

Look at the paystub. What dates does the paystub say the wages were for?

Look at your Monetary Determination letter

Weekly Benefit Amount (WBA): $247.00
 Maximum Benefit Amount (MBA): $6,422.00
 Benefit Year begins (BYB): 03/15/2020
 Benefit Year End* (BYE): 03/13/2021

IF the date the check says it is paying for is AFTER your BYB – claim this as SEVERANCE and do steps 7b & c
 EXAMPLE – someone who filed on 3/15/2020 would need to claim this as severance if it says it is for the period through 3/27-28/2020

IF the date the check says it is paying is BEFORE your BYB – return to step 7. There is no need for you to report this.
 EXAMPLE – anyone who filed after 3/29/2020 would not need to claim this as they are not asking to be paid for the time their severance check covers.
